137 ▼ When I was stationed in South Korea, the north had a propaganda radio network that was transmitted in English. The general tone and the way the "news" was reported was eerily similar to what you hear on NPR. To this day, it always creeps me out when I come across NPR on the radio.

50 ▼ Yep. I know someone closely who does this. He always trumpets about how he doesn't watch "cable news" because all it does is foment outrage, so he instead opts for the outrage narrative that's delivered in a hushed Teri Gross voice. He believes all the same MSM bullshit (Trump is a white supremacist, the PBs are white supremacists, on down the line), he's just kind of quiet about it.

NPR is just mind control propaganda for the mellow fence sitting type NPC.

14 ▼ All my hipster idiot co-workers all listen to NPR because it's always on in their car when I hitch a ride with them to lunch or something and they have to change the channel. They're total "I wear a mask and gloves while a drive alone, but let me still one tire you about how viruses work" type leftists.

12 ▼ At least they change the station. Whenever I've gotten into a car with an NPR listener, they  s leave it on and act irritated if you try to talk over it. I don't know if it's because they can't stand to be an NPR comedy segment on for us to listen to, with the comedian--an ex-white house intern--telling some stupid story about how Obama walked into the room--cue worshipful "oohs" from the audience--and the comedian was mortified because he was responsible for microphone cable set-up and a cable that Obama had to use was tangled and the intern wanted to die because he had let Obama down. Hilarious, huh?

3 ▼ If someone is telling a story "like a movie" it can be pretty rude to talk over the story teller. You miss important details. I can relate to that.

NPR is propaganda, but they have a layer of polish in their story teller that ropes folks in. Vox on YouTube comes to mind.

2 ▼ Used to work with an entire team of these people. Many had Bernie stickers. It was me and one other person that thought either Cruz or Trump were likely going to get the nominee...they would get so mad when I would say "Bernie will never win the primary. Nobody wants socialism or communism in this country".

After the primaries the other guy and I would say "You know people absolutely hate Hillary Clinton, right? Trump will mop the floor with her." REEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE.

I remember someone showing me how a learning system (person, AI, etc) is required mathematically to form some sort of bias simply due to the fact they cannot know everything already at once or there is no need for a learning system

NYT The Daily podcast does this also. It's uses a high brow tone and presents what it wants to appear as a nuanced discussion of a topic when in fact it only offers a pointed, singular, closed conclusion at the end.

They “discussed” Joe Biden's rape allegations once for instance, and acted like they were confronting and exploring difficult topics about who to believe as if they were really grappling with it. But by the end the conclusion was a clear throated “now just shut up and vote for him , you cunt.” Ending point. No open ended ness no “you decide. Just literally telling you what to do by the end.

tell them they have outsourced their thinking to folks who are paid to tell lies. Seemingly every “del

27 ▼ Some people consider concepts and tend to be Pedes. Others are impressed with footnotes and credentials and tend to be Cucks.

This is a great divide.

Nowadays, credentials usually means you're an IDIOT who can't think for yourself and relies on the approval of other IDIOTS like yourself to feel good about yourself.

They use to have a few guest before Trump that would poke holes in the left. They full stopped it. I recall one guest before Trump was awesome. He broke down why taking in illegal aliens was more harmful for illegal aliens long term. The logic was spade tight. Basically just corps exploiting them for cheap labor. NPR would never allow that stance again on their airwaves.

Another said the XL pipeline was already built, it was just one last piece of it on the Canadian border Obama was holding as a card for political leverage. People believed that Obama was stopping the whole XL pipeline for environmental reasons which was a lie.

• Dianne Feinstein campaign ad [1994] :

Right to Stop Illegal Immigration

- Democratic Party's official platform [1996] :

“We cannot tolerate illegal immigration and we must stop it. For years [...] Washington talked tough but failed to act [...] Our borders might as well not have existed. The border was under-patrolled, and what patrols there were, were under-equipped. Drugs flowed freely. Illegal immigration was rampant. Criminal immigrants, deported after committing crimes in America, returned the very next day to commit crimes again.”

- Harry Reid [1993] :

“If making it easy to be an illegal alien isn't enough, how about offering a reward for being an illegal alien? No sane country would do that, right?”

- Chuck Schumer [2009] :

“When we use phrases like 'undocumented workers' we convey a message to the American people that their government is not serious about combating illegal immigration”

- Obama [2005] :

“We simply cannot allow people to pour into the U.S. undetected, undocumented, unchecked, and circumventing the line of people who are waiting patiently, diligently, and lawfully to become immigrants in this country.”

- Bill Clinton [1995] :

“All Americans, not only in the States most heavily affected but in every place in this country, are rightly disturbed by the large numbers of illegal aliens entering our country. The jobs they hold might otherwise be held by citizens or legal immigrants. The public service they use impose burdens on our taxpayers.”

- Nancy Pelosi [2008] :

“While we need to address the issue of immigration and the challenge we have of undocumented people in our country. We certainly don't want more coming in.”

- Bill Clinton [1995] :

“We are a nation of immigrants. But we are also a nation of laws. It is wrong and ultimately self-defeating for a nation of immigrants to permit the kind of abuse of our immigration laws we have seen in recent years, and we must do more to stop it” ✓

“If poverty is increasing and if wages are going down, I don't know why we need millions of people to be coming into this country as guest workers who will work for lower wages than American workers and drive wages down even lower than they are now”

- Dianne Feinstein [1993] :

“In Mexico there is no welfare there is no AFDC, there is no SSI, there is no Medicaid, there is no Social Security, there is no Medicare, and there is 58 cent an hour min wage. Mexico does nothing to enforce its border. It is my view, that if we are going to have a North American Free Trade Agreement that Mexico must do its share. Because the days when America could be the welfare system for Mexico is gone - we simply can't afford it. It's over $2 billion dollars in California alone. ”

Reid was my senator for 9 years when I lived in Reno. About once a month, when he did yet another crappy thing, I would type a letter and hand deliver to his Reno office that same afternoon.. His office manager, Mike Esposito, would read the letter and tell me, "So THAT's what they are all calling about ! " Every caller was upset and couldn't make a logical argument/presentation. Mike became a good friend and even suggested that I apply for a job with Reid!!!!.

2009 -- the House, under Pelosi, voted UNANIMOUSLY to pass an amendment to require all of the $800 billion Recovery Act funds on contracts to use E-Verify, so all money would go to legal workers. Senate majority leader Harry Reid refused a vote, taking all the heat in his safe seat, allowing all Demobrat House members to say they supported American workers.

That is because NPR was created in Racine, Wisconsin.

Racine is the "root" and model for Agenda 21, Sustainable Development / Sustainability (Sustainable Racine / Earth Summit), Community Policing, Zika, Nuclear Arms Control, International Criminal Courts, Common Core and the World Core Curriculum, and the Color Revolution through Anna Makanju, Srdja Popovic, Ivan Marovic and the Council for a Community of Democracies.

Racine is where CTCL and Zuckerberg used as the model to rig the election. The Knight Foundation daughter lives in Racine. Brad Smith the President of Microsoft with ElectionGuard is from Racine, and is the key advisor to Gates, Zuckerberg and the global elites.

They rigged a Biden backed Billion Dollar Referendum in the Spring Primary (and rigged the recount partners Weill Cornell and others (see Mason Lab and Hunter Biden tattoo about Finger Lakes) to create models for additional Community Health, Education and Policing reform. ✓

9 I actually listen in the car when I'm alone. I call it "spying on the liberals" and it's helped me in debates better understand what I'm up against with colleagues. I know their positions but they don't know mine. 😂

8 I've spent time in China, so I've heard more than a few propaganda broadcasts in my time and, NPR is what real higher quality propaganda looks like. It's not hokey or over the top nationalism, instead it's "you're so smart, we're all intellectuals here, look at those right wing people and their illegal ideas har har har" over and over.

2 KPFA and other far left outlets are much better than NPR. They are at least willing to point out flaws in the current system. It's identifying the solutions to those problems that they haven't quite cracked yet. ✓

5 Even when I was a liberal I hated NPR because their reporting is bad.

- 2011ish I was a shitlib and Obama supporter. It was a slow day at work and I was following the news. There was some big news out of the middle east that day. Something Obama did. I followed the story all day on CBS CNN etc. Later that night I heard NPR do a 15 second story on that same event and they totally fucked it up. They left 1/2 the story out, and the 1/2 they reported they got wrong. I was so mad I stopped listening to NPR. Because that was not the first time I had heard them butcher a story.

In that moment I realized millions of people listen to NPR and think they are getting real news. But really they are getting lazy bad inaccurate reporting.

4 Thee most insidious propaganda. I stopped listening with any regularity over a year ago, particularly since they were seeding greater 'followership' with their announcement of special thanks to the Clinton Family. So, whatever happened to the investigation of the Clinton Foundation? Another swept under the rug.

4 Not only propaganda, DANGEROUS PROPAGANDA!! Check out this article on Thymosin Alpha-1:
<https://www.npr.org/2020/10/01/914433778/web-of-wellness-doctors-promote-injections-of-unproven-coronavirus-treatment>

Thymosin Alpha-1 is an FDA approved orphan drug, it is a 100% natural peptide that regulates immunity. In a retrospective Covid-19 study, 0% of severe COVID patients on TA1 required intubation and 3 times as many COVID patients died in the control group. BUT NPR explicitly lies, says Thymosin Alpha-1 is not FDA approved, and tries their best to discredit this peptide that is a MAJOR immune regulator in all mammals! THEY ARE FAKE NEWS. BOUGHT AND PAID FOR BY THE ESTABLISHMENT.

Pick-up artists are scum and Elliott Rodgers is scum too.

Same with the New Zealand shooter. His manifesto was very clear about his distaste for Trump yet the media consistently tied his crimes to Trump.

▼ I listen on purpose occasionally so I can understand what lie or narrative the establishment wants us to believe. It's very accurate and also annoying. They slip in snarky comments like "Trump, without evidence, is claiming election fraud". I think biggest help to the commie globalist leftist establishment is that they subtly and constantly inculcate the Lie.
